

Cornell University

State University of New York

SOLUTIONS FAIR

October 14, 2011 - Binghamton

Free micro-workshops designed to help you to take advantage of your local resources - Meet one-on-one with technology and business experts who can help your company make products, fix processes, solve problems, and move on!

Analytical Services, Instrumentation, Technical Expertise, Incubator Space, Strategic Planning, Business Analysis, Process Improvement, Funding and Grants, Workforce Training. Interns.

Attendees will complete a simple questionnaire that helps us insure you connect with the right people.

Tables Staffed by Experts from:

■ Binghamton University's

- New York State Center for Excellence in Small Scale Systems Integration and Packaging (S³IP)
- Analytical Diagnostics Laboratory
- Integrated Electronics Engineering Center, NYS Center for Advanced Technology (CAT)
- Strategic Partnerships for Industrial Resurgence (SPIR)
- Watson Institute for Systems Excellence
- Small Business Development Center

■ Cornell University's

- Center for Materials Research (CCMR)
- NanoScale Science & Technology Facility (CNF)
- College of Agriculture and Life Sciences (CALS)
- Institute for Biotechnology and Life Science Technologies Center for Advanced Technology (CAT)
- Kevin M. McGovern Family Center for Venture Development in the Life Sciences
- Johnson School Consulting (BRC), legal counsel (BRL), and capital (BRV)

■ Alliance for Manufacturing & Technology (AM&T)

Date and Time: Friday, October 14, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Place: Binghamton University, Biotechnology Building, Innovative Technologies Complex (ITC), 85 Murray Hill Road, Vestal, N.Y.

Cost: Free, Seating is limited. Registration Deadline – Sept. 23rd

To register or for more information, contact John Sinnott, CCMR at:

jps39@cornell.edu 607-255-7070